DESCRIPTION

Minomushi suspends from ceiling to floor or suspends from ceiling only. Includes part to anchor fixture to floor. Designed by Issey Miyake, Minomushi is part of IN-EI collection. This collection uses material that comes from the regeneration of the fiber of PET (polyethylene terephthalate) bottles - an innovative project based on a mathematical program and the wise use of the latest generation sources to create a unique relationship between light and shadow. This technology consumes a third less energy than the production of a material derived from petroleum. Also available in Minomushi floor lamp version and various suspension, floor, and table versions. Supplied with a 30 watt, 120 volt, LED light source. 3000K temperature. 24.44W x 76.75H. Exclusively at Lightology!
