DESCRIPTION

With its name derived from toy, The Toio Floor Lamp is designed to stir the imagination, incorporating equipment-style elements in whimsical yet practical fashion. Its hexagonal nickel-plated brass stem is held by an enamel steel base and fitted with fishing rod rings that guide the cord from the bulb down to the transformer. Stem height is adjustable. The base has a cleat resembling those found on boats, for neatly coiling any extra cord length. The included LED PAR 56 bulb at the top provides indirect lighting and evokes the lamp's inspiration, a car headlight.
