DESCRIPTION

There is a Maori creation myth in which the gods gave to humans three baskets containing the knowledge they needed to live on Earth. They hold the knowledge of the natural world-Kete Arounui, the spiritual world-Kete Taaatea, and our rational world-Kete Tauri. The knowledge needs to be in balance for us to live harmoniously on Earth. Inspired by this story, the Basket of Knowledge - Kete Taaatea features a hand sanded polycarbonate basket and shroud that houses an energy efficient and long lasting LED spot light. Also available in Bamboo and Aluminum versions. 32 inch diameter x 82 inches high. Comes with 10 feet of cord. Ships assembled.
