Cynara Table Lamp

By Currey & Company

Description

The Cynara Table Lamp is made by a group of elderly women who live at the border of Burma and Thailand, and features a lovely oversized white lamp shaped like an artichoke. Each leaf, or bract as they are called with the real plant, is made of ceramic and affixed by hand, the shaping a painstaking process in order to mimic the lamp's edible namesake. The body of the Cynara is then finished in a soft antique white. 3-way socket switch.
