Tolomeo Outdoor Lantern Suspension

By Artemide

Description

The Tolomeo Outdoor Lantern Suspension by Artemide extends the iconic legacy of the Tolomeo collection, designed by Michele De Lucchi and Giancarlo Fassina, into the exterior realm. This elegant suspension fixture is crafted to bring a sophisticated contemporary look and a welcoming glow to any outdoor living area, perfect for illuminating covered patios, pergolas, or outdoor dining spaces.Constructed with a durable Aluminum body, this lantern integrates an efficient LED light source, diffused through a resilient, transparent IP65 plastic shade. The crucial IP65 rating ensures that the fixture is highly resistant to both dust and powerful water jets, making it a reliable and long-lasting addition to your outdoor environment. Every structural element of the Tolomeo Outdoor Lantern has been meticulously strengthened to withstand the increased stresses of outdoor exposure, guaranteeing its performance and aesthetic integrity. This fixture offers a refined suspension solution, providing ambient light that elevates your outdoor experience with the timeless design language of Tolomeo.
