Kelim Merge Runner Rug

By Ferm Living

Description

The Kelim Merge Runner Rug is handmade, and in beautiful burnt and navy hues, the rug's design features geometric shapes and color blocking. The weaving is done on a Punja loom, using a traditional and manual loom technique that is one of the oldest in the world. The wool-cotton yarn is hand-dyed, and some shade variation may occur due to the nature of the wool and dye. The Kelim weave yarns have a unique, coarse feel that bring an added element of tactility to the rug, which is characteristic to traditional kelim rugs.
