Allegory Table Lamp

By Currey and Company

Description

The Allegory Table Lamp features an extra tall and slender cylindrical body of the gold lamp that is formed from rods made of metal in an antique brass finish that are cleverly clasped together by a thin central ring. The white marble base and rectangular shade are pale elements that contrast the warmth of the metal, including the matching antique brass finial. 3-way switch on socket.

Shown in antique brass / marble / bone linen
