Carnival Infinity Mirror

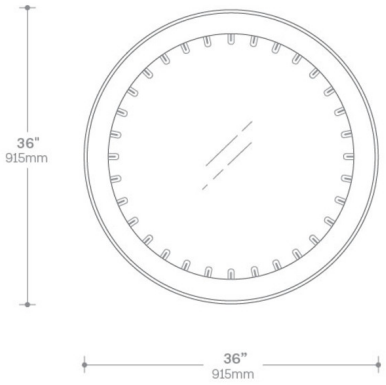

By Nova of California

Description

The Carnival Infinity Mirror is a dramatic work of art and conversation starter, its lights appearing to recede down an infinite tunnel. Designed in the 1960s by Jon Gilmore, this large-scale 3D illusion mirror creates an intriguing focal point in your space while emitting a warm glow. A smart plug is included for connecting your mirror to smart home systems such as Amazon Echo, Google Assistant and Apple Home. Once connected, the mirror can be controlled through voice or a smartphone app to turn it on/off, set a schedule and more. Includes 30 T19 E12 base LED bulbs. The fixture is not dimmable.
