Mecato Bench

By Ames

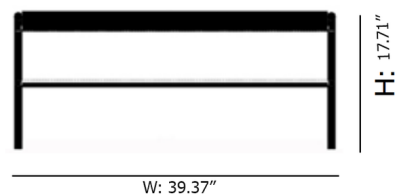

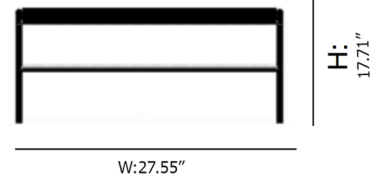

Description

The light Mecato Bench is a minimalist piece that allows the beauty of Colombian craftsmanship to take center. It's a design by Pauline Deltour, who found the inspiration for the piece when visiting the Colombian province of Nario. Suitable for all indoor environments, the stool's seat is covered with a handwoven fabric made with the fibers of the Iraca palm. Its cover has a slightly corrugated texture, making it very pleasant to touch.
