Bankers Wall Clock

By Arne Jacobsen

Description

In 1971, Arne Jacobsen left a mark on the National Bank of Denmark with his creation of the Bankers Wall Clock, which later on effortlessly transformed into a home design icon. The present-day rendition, faithful to the original drawings, offers this wall clock in several distinct sizes. With its clock case supporting a concave glass front, the visual effect of the clock appearing to float on the wall is both striking and captivating. A remarkable choice for commemorating weddings, anniversaries, birthdays, graduations, and other special occasions, this clock serves as a distinctive and meaningful gift option. Required 1 AA batteries. Note: Limited options available in Black.
