Nan Ceiling Fan

By Matthews Fan Company

Description

The contemporary Atlas Nan Ceiling Fan features a sleek design of neatly joined wooden blades and a clean cylindrical motor housing. Blending beautifully with casual or formal settings and everything in between, it works in residential environments, restaurants, hospitality settings and offices, enhancing the space with modern style and a fresh breeze. With a range of sizes to choose from, the Nan is suitable for various applications from small rooms to large commercial spaces. This fan is equipped with a DC motor that delivers superior performance while remaining quiet and energy efficient, and includes a hand-held remote control and a wall control, both 6-speed with motor on/off and forward/reverse functions. Optional accessories are sold separately. Note: Some finish/blade combinations are not available in every size.
