Bowery Arc Floor Lamp

By Adesso Corp.

Description

Playing with scale and space, the Bowery Arc Lamp gracefully extends over a sectional or sofa to stylishly illuminate your room. Crafted of metal with a striking finish, the lamp features a slim adjustable branching arm extending from a narrow central pole for a sleek, minimalist design with a natural woven drum shade. For highly versatile lighting options, the arm can be pivoted around the pole to best accommodate the space and can be adjusted and redirected to focus the light wherever it's needed. On/off rotary switch on pole.
