Tara Pendant

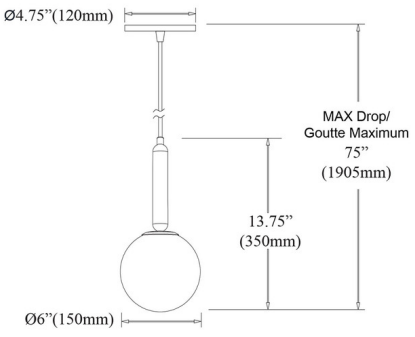

By Dainolite

Description

The Tara family of lighting adds a note of eye-catching luxury with a modest footprint that will work in any size room. Variations on the simple theme of a vertical drop with a globe light at the end create a versatile appeal. A simple drop becomes a sturdy cylindrical metal frame/ housing. A glass globe contains the light for a look that's contemporary, with configurations that include hammered glass for an intriguing finish. Tara lighting adds a graceful touch to hallways, kitchens and dinettes.
