DESCRIPTION

With black and grey coloring and a traditional silhouette, the Caleb Floor Lamp blends seamlessly with contemporary decor to illuminate bedrooms, dining rooms, and living spaces. Crafted of metal with a black finish, this lamp is anchored by a round base with softened tiers. Rising from the base is a long slender pole ending with a column-style silhouette beneath the shade. To softly diffuse the light, the lamp features a light grey fabric drum shade with subtle texturing. For easy operation, a rotary switch is located on the socket, while the lamp is powered by a 5' black cord that coordinates with the black metal finish.
