BuzziTile Acoustic Wall Panel

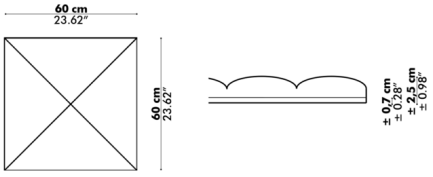

By BuzziSpace

Description

The power of color and advanced high-quality acoustic dampening combine to make the BuzziTile Acoustic Wall Panel a must have for open floor plan spaces. This no-stitch, felt-backed panel features a 3D pattern and recycled fabric exterior that is engineered to absorb and muffle mid- and high-tone ambient sound. It's a playful and visually engaging solution for a common problem in open floor plan spaces, including offices, home workspaces and more.
