Plavan Jar Set of 3

By Currey and Company

Description

The Plavan Jar Set includes three lidded offering boxes with luminous brass rings running the circumference of the bottom, the top, and along each edge where the lid meets the jar. The electric blue pattern that seems to drip along the surface of each jar is actually painted by hand. Proving that these pieces are artisanal in their creation, some brushstrokes show the culmination point where the artist lifted the brush on the lighter oblong shapes, the action leaving a darker spot at that point.
