Air Table

By Magis

Description

The Air Table impresses with its simple design in both form and function. Made of polypropylene and manufactured using gas-injection molding, the table is strong, durable, lightweight and perfect for domestic use and contracts (bars and restaurants). Practical and easy to clean you'll be able to storage them in small space and to use when you need. Harmonious, dynamic, and suitable for indoor or outdoor use, the table creates a welcoming atmosphere anywhere: at home or in a collective space, in the kitchen, the dining room or the garden.
