Bonta Portable Table Lamp

By Artemide

Description

The Bonta Portable Table Lamp by Artemide, designed by Davide Oppizzi, is more than just a light source; it's an invitation to connect, gracefully blurring the lines between illumination and shared experiences to make every gathering special. This charming lamp fosters a unique dialogue between light and food.Its elegant white milk glass body not only beautifully diffuses a soft, inviting light but also creates a relaxed and intimate atmosphere. It's crowned with an exquisite Venetian glass bowl, hand-worked to display stunning transparency and a diamond-patterned texture, providing a delightful vessel for sharing small bites, condiments, or even decorative elements. Each lamp and bowl are individually hand-crafted, ensuring a truly unique and artisanal piece for your home. With a convenient switch on the base, you can effortlessly cycle through three brightness levels (25%, 50%, or 100%) to set the perfect mood. Being rechargeable via a modern USB Type C port, the Bonta offers impressive portability, lasting up to 8 hours at its highest brightness on a full charge, allowing you to enjoy its charming glow anywhere, indoors or out.
