Merkur Upholstered Seat Dining Chair By Audo Copenhagen

Description

The Merkur Dining Chair was originally designed specifically for the Oslo Stock Exchange and takes its name from Mercury, the Roman god of commerce. Merkur is a modern take on classic wooden dining chairs, with a refined silhouette crafted with traditional woodworking techniques. The result is a timeless piece of furniture that feels at home in both a 19th century stock exchange or a modern home. Note: The Dakar Black Leather and Hallingdal 65 370 fabric are only available with a Black Oak frame. The Dakar Cognac Leather and Hallingdal 65 200 fabric are only available with a Natural Oak frame.
