Harper Wall Light

By Blueprint Lighting

Description

The Harper Wall Sconce is named for Ace Harper, an artist, musician, fashion designer, mother, and wife of iconic rock drummer Matt Sorum. Like its namesake, this light is classically beautiful yet bold and edgy, turning heads in any room. Elegant satin opal glass globes are attached to a slim bar to create this unique overscaled piece. Place it in an entryway or bedroom to add a layer of ambient lighting with distinct style.
