Description

The Lynx Ceiling Light is a recessed Opal glass fixture in a rounded metal frame. The sturdy and solid look of this fixture is complemented by stone or marble features in any washroom or living space. The high output AC LED allows for a powerful but efficient light output. Equipped with a three-way color temperature switch (2700K/3350K/4000K), this fixture allows you to easily customize the brightness to your desired setting, ensuring the perfect ambiance for any occasion.
