Persian Rug

By Nanimarquina

Description

The Persian Rug is chromatically composed of tonalities from the natural environment: pollen, moss, scarlet and charcoal. Tradition and craftsmanship are the primary inspiration of this collection of flexible, soft and bright rugs that are also simple and plain. The Persian Rug is knitted with Persian knot and hand spun Afghan wool through a laborious manual process that enriches the fabric providing a texture of extreme softness. Each thread, each knot, transports us to the universe and the origin of rugs.
