Agave Console Table

By Currey & Company

Description

The Agave Console Table was inspired by the flourishing Agave sisalana plant, whose spiky, leathery fronds curl up from the ground just as the petite clumps of leaves on this white console table do. Her passion for the Yucatan Peninsula, the surroundings in which she lives and through which she translates the flora and fauna into dynamic products in her studio, shines in this wrought iron table covered in a crisp gesso white finish with a mirrored top.
