Sirocco Desk Lamp

By Currey & Company

Description

Tom Caldwell created a light profile for the Sirocco Desk Lamp and wrapped all but the main decorative elements in jute rope. These include the ring at its apex, the small globe connecting the forked arms, and the base itself. Made of wood and plated antique brass, the rope desk lamp is fitted with two off-white linen shades. This is a dressy desk lamp that was designed to be a decorative and functional accent in a space. On/off rocker switch.
