Conical Mushroom Vase

By Currey and Company

Description

The Conical Mushroom Vase is a vessel onto which fanciful mushrooms have been affixed and then the entire vase is covered in a luminous blue reactive glaze. The expressive nature of the fungi makes this ceramic vase whimsical and interesting. Made by a group of women who live at the border of Burma and Thailand, the incredible hand-thrown vase is composed and then the decorative elements are put place, one-by-one, by hand.
