Monreale Linear Chandelier

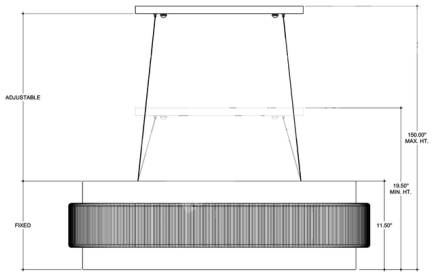

By Currey & Company

Description

With a band made from recycled paper that has been twisted like braided hair, the Monreale Chandelier has an ultra-contemporary cleanness to its design. The paper, which is painted white, is wrapped around the middle of an off-white shantung shade. The canopy is finished in a Sugar White that contributes to the lightness of this white chandelier. The bottom of the shade is fitted with a diffuser to soften the glow.
