Korg Chandelier

By Currey and Company

Description

The Korg Chandelier in the Barry Goralnick Collection was inspired by a Swedish basket the designer discovered while antiquing during his travels abroad. He loved the shape of the basket and the teardrops, and the craftsmanship was superb. Goralnick thought this was the perfect form to be interpreted into the materials chosen the wooden beads and pendants strung along a wrought iron frame, all covered in a Sandstone finish. The graceful beige chandelier exudes an earthy glamour that makes it the perfect fit for rooms with a coastal, tropical, or international aesthetic.
