Fielding Color-Select Ceiling Light

By Currey & Company

Description

The design of the Fielding Ceiling Light was inspired by the engineering capabilities that its integrated LED technologies bring to the table. Tom Caldwell was looking to create a very modern profile -- one that a hint of Hollywood glamour in its makeup. Made of wrought iron, the exterior of the shade is in a sophisticated mix of the finish with contemporary gold leaf and topped off with an acrylic diffuser. Features color-select technology which allows user to select between 2700K, 3000K and 4000K color temperature options.

Shown in black / gold leaf / white
