Rudi Double Pendant

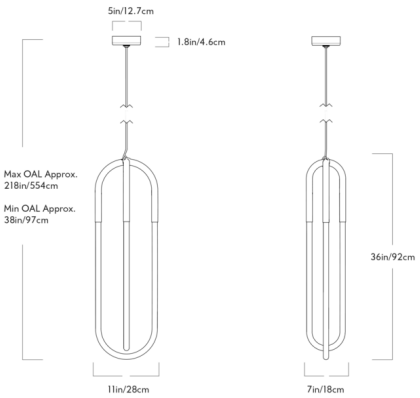

By Roll & Hill

Description

While creating the Rudi Double Pendant, designer Lukas Peet took inspiration from jewelry and named the pendant after his father, a jeweler. Rudi's form is composed of a pair of intersecting ovals made from bent metal tubes and hand formed glass diffusers housing LED light sources. The pendant is suspended from its cord, which is looped over the frame in a simple knot to provide a charming accent to the minimal design.

Shown in satin brass / white
