Pharos Plug-In Wall Light

By Savoy House

Description

The Pharos Plug-In Wall Light is part of Moderne by Breegan Jane, bringing her signature approachable modern luxury style to your home. Breegan loves how metallics elevate a design, as exemplified by this opaque metal shade finished entirely in champagne-toned Noble Brass. The shade can be adjusted, providing different angles of light to meet your needs, and the arm is adjustable as well. This sconce also features a convenient on-off switch on the backplate and can be plugged in or hardwired.
