Emerson Arc Lamp with Charging Port - Overstock

By Adesso Corp.

Description

Crafted of metal, the Emerson Arc Lamp with Charging Port design is dominated by a large globe shade. Painted white on the inside, the shade projects bright, crisp light, features an articulation point, allowing you to rotate the shade up or down and side to side to direct the light wherever it's needed. A thin stem leads to a round base with a wireless charging pad built flush into it. Featuring Qi inductive charging technology, you can conveniently charge compatible devices by simply placing your device on the pad for clean, cord-free charging. Includes on/off rotary switch on shade. NOTE: This is a discontinued model and limited to quantity on hand.
