AV Egoist Chaise Longue By Sibast Furniture

Description

The AV Egoist Chaise Longue was originally designed in the early 1950s by Danish designer Arne Vodder, but only a few pieces were manufactured at the time. Sibast Furniture, with the help of Vodder's son Michael, have reintroduced this underappreciated gem for the current day based on photographs and Vodder's original sketches. The AV Egoist Chaise Longue features the hallmarks of mid-century Danish Modern design with its molded wood veneer frame, solid wood legs and woven leather seat. The chaise's bold, angular silhouette is contrasted by the rich texture of natural materials for a warm, inviting expression.
