Bilboquet Table Lamp

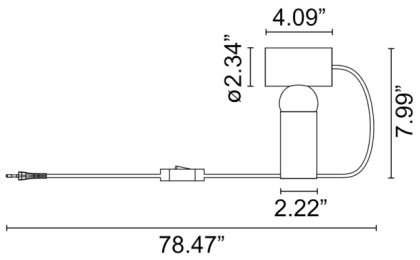

By FLOS

Description

Discover the innovative design of the Flos Bilboquet Table Lamp, a forward-thinking creation that marries clever functionality with eco-conscious materials. This unique lamp features a cylindrical body crafted from a special polycarbonate material derived from paper production by-products, a remarkable step away from petroleum-based plastics. Its most compelling feature is the adjustable lamp head, which can be freely positioned along a spherical joint, allowing you to direct its focused light precisely where you need it. A simple on/off switch on the cord ensures effortless control, making the Bilboquet a smart and stylish choice for the environmentally aware.Why you'll love it: The Bilboquet isn't just a lamp; it's a statement of responsible design. Its ingenious adjustability makes it incredibly versatile for various tasks, while its unique material story offers a compelling narrative.Perfect for: Home offices, reading nooks, or beside a bed, offering directed light with a conscience.Key Highlights:Eco-Conscious Design: Made with innovative, sustainable polycarbonate.Precision Lighting: Freely adjustable head directs light with pinpoint accuracy.Modern Aesthetic: Clean lines and a cylindrical form perfectly suit contemporary spaces.Thoughtful Details: Designed for intuitive use and lasting appeal.
