Faux Bois Bird Bath

By Currey & Company

Description

In the time-honored artistry of French garden accessories, the base of the Faux Bois Bird Bath is fashioned to resemble an aged tree that gracefully angles up to its top bowl to convince the eye that nature created it. Durability is built into the make-up of this concrete bird bath. The Portland finish that settles into the natural crevices enhances the illusion of age, which will make it blend in with its outdoor settings and fool the birds into thinking it was mother-nature made.
