Relic Accent Table

By Currey and Company

Description

The Relic Accent Table lives up to its name with its pitted surface that looks as if it has weathered centuries of climate. Made by a talented group of artisans who live on the border of Burma and Thailand, and make such a wide variety of unique ceramic pieces, the beige accent table is the epitome of handcrafted. The ivory white moss glazing on the side table is an artisanal touch, as it appears pale in some spots and darker in others.
