Magnum Opus Wall Light

By Currey & Company

Description

Undertaking the challenge of creating a clean-lined version of a vintage design, the Magnum Opus Wall Light features rows of glass leaves attached to metal stems that arc around the wall-plate. The glass leaves effervesce when light strikes them, creating a stunning sculptural fixture. The white glass beautifully contrasts the metal in a brass finish, bringing a heightened level of texture to the gold sconce while infusing a space with a lovely glow.
