Musetta Table Lamp

By Currey & Company

Description

The Musetta Table Lamp is an example of tailored perfection. Panels of faux leather have been expertly sewn and wrapped around the hexagonal shape that makes the lamp's body so appealing. The ivory lamp is cinched by a metal ring as it nears the base, which matches the antique brass finish on the base itself. The box-pleated shade that echoes the scale of the lamp is fastened with a finial that is also in antique brass. 1-way turn knob.
