Zebulon Table Lamp

By Currey & Company

Description

With its beautifully stippled glass work, the Zebulon Table Lamp is an artisanal wonder. The antique brass metal rings that sit between the oval glass elements draw out the gold speckles in the glass, and the optic crystal base and finial echo the freshness of the clear glass orbs. Because the blown glass has so much personality, this clear lamp will be a glamorous decorative element in a room. 3-way turn knob.

Shown in antique brass / white / beige
