Aarna Table Lamp

By Currey and Company

Description

The Aarna Table Lamp, with its basketweave pattern, is made of pieces of wood interspersed with strips of composite. The contrast of the textural woodgrains and the sleek composite creates an interesting aspect to this design, as do the angular lines of the rectangular body that echo the scale of the elongated pieces on its surface. The drum shade contributes to the feeling of complexity that is obvious with this design. 3-way turn knob.
