Kinnaird Table Lamp

By Currey & Company

Description

The splatter finish on the double-gourd-shaped body of the Kinnaird Table Lamp brings the green lamp the feeling that it is artfully aged. Made of ceramic, the glazing is splashed in shades of moss green, the color carried through to the matching finial. The metal base and hardware are made of metal in an antique brass finish to complete the traditional feel of this fixture. 3-way turn knob.

Shown in antique brass / moss green / eggshell linen
