Snowflower Floor Lamp

By Currey and Company

Description

The big, beautiful blossoms of the Snowflower Floor Lamp and the body they flow up from are made of wrought iron in a gesso white finish. Unfolding toward the ceiling, the undulant petals direct the light upward. The pale finish that flows into the interiors of the blooms turns warm when the bulbs illuminate it. The white floor lamp with its wild botanical personality has a foot switch for ease of turning it off and on.
