Nanquim Area Rug

By Toulemonde Bochart

(65)

Description

Created in 1958, the Nanquim Rug (Portuguese for Chinese city of Nanjing) illustrates Noel Marinho's architectural work, defining hollows and solids on a facade in light or shadow. A game of positive and negative, this hand-tufted rug in New Zealand wool offers its refined geometry to animate the floors of amoureux with the rigor of form and color. Hand-tufted in India.
