Pod Dining Table

By Connubia

Description

The Pod Dining Table is an elegant and contemporary table that combines in a fascinating contrast the warm and solid nature of wood and the ethereal and modern nature of glass. The solid wood structure offers a distinctive solidity and robustness to the light transparent smoked glass top, which in turn allows you to appreciate the refined craftsmanship of the wood, finely beveled and smoothed to obtain surfaces and sections that enhance the beauty of the grain. The tapered legs give dynamism and lightness and the organic connection between them and the crosspiece represents a distinctive detail.
