Abaca Bare Chandelier

By Elk Home

Description

The Abaca Bare Chandelier has a simplistic design allowing the material to be the focus of attention. This chandelier would work well with a coastal, eclectic or rustic decor. Abaca is a species of banana tree, grown in the Phillipines. The stalks produce fibers used in decorative items due to the flexibility, strength and natural beauty. Each strand of Abaca rope is tightly hand wrapped to form a textural facade of warm grey colors.
