Eau de Nil Table Lamp

By Currey & Company

Description

The name of the Eau de Nil Table Lamp was inspired by its pale green color, the sound as graceful as the design. Made of porcelain, the surface of the patterned double-gourd shaped body looks as if it is floating with clouds. The textured antique gold leaf on the metal and the wood base bring a warmth to the overall design. An empire shade is held in place by a matching gold finial.

Shown in green / textured antique gold leaf / off-white linen
