Heart'N'Soul Extension Dining Table

By Umage

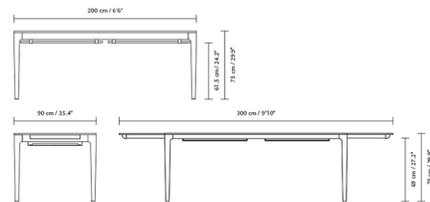

Description

The Heart'N'Soul Extension Dining Table offers a perfect blend of form and function with a clean-lined, minimalist expression. A drawer on each end of the table provides a handy space for storage, and the drawers also double as supports for the extension leaves to increase the length of the table. The extension leaves can be stored beneath the table when not in use. Heart'N'Soul is available with an MDF and wood veneer tabletop in Light Oak, Dark Oak, or Black Oak. The legs are made of solid oak.
