Taraxacum 88 Wall / Ceiling Light

By FLOS

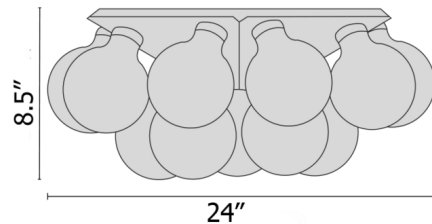

Description

Unleash a dazzling display of light with the Flos Taraxacum 88 Wall / Ceiling Light, a spectacular creation inspired by Achille Castiglioni's original pendant design from 1960. This fixture is a true work of art, featuring five polished aluminum triangles meticulously adorned with an array of globe-shaped LED bulbs. This unique configuration ensures a dynamic spread of both direct and reflected light, bathing your space in a brilliant, multi-faceted glow. Whether mounted on the wall or ceiling, the Taraxacum 88 will instantly add a dramatic flair and a touch of mid-century modern genius to any interior. It's more than a light source; it's a luminous sculpture that commands attention and admiration.
