Wicker Blowfish Pendant

By Jonathan Adler

Description

The Wicker Blowfish Pendant brings a breezy and tropical look to your interior space. These are perfect floating about your room or grouped together in varying heights, creating your own unique look. Weaved by a single artisan over the course of multiple days. After the reeds are hand-soaked and woven, an additional two days is spent trimming and sanding the sculpture by hand. Each piece is then coated with a clear lacquer to enhance the natural rattan coloring.
