Alyth Table Lamp By Troy Lighting

Description

Created from a 3-D scan of a sculpture by Chandler McLellan, the Alyth Table Lamp is inspired by the twists and turns of the Scots Pine. Shaped by the unforgiving conditions of the Scottish Highlands, the trees appear to be frozen in an eternal dance; a visual that is echoed by the dramatic gesture of the interlocking wood pieces of Alyth. On/off switch on socket. Note: The Alyth is French wired with the power cord exiting the stem of the lamp instead of the base (see installation instructions for illustration). NOTE: Due to the one-of-a-kind nature of the medium, exact colors and patterns may vary slightly from the image shown.
