Oda Lounge Chair By Audo Copenhagen

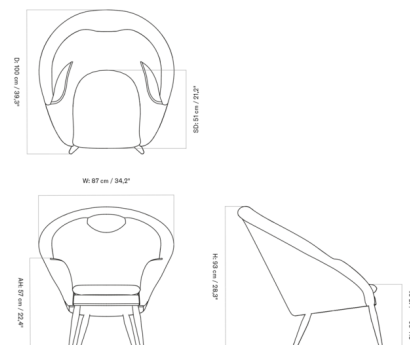

Description

Originally known as the MS-9, the Oda Lounge Chair was designed by Arnold Madsen in 1957. Oda features a high, rounded back that envelops the user in a welcoming embrace. Within the chair's sweeping back, built-in wooden armrests and molded neck and lumbar supports add comfortable accents. The seat is supported by angled wooden legs, which add a stylish accent to the design.

Shown in oiled walnut / hallingdal 65 600
